

FRENCH WOMAN MAY CLAIM "TITANIC ORPHANS"—
GIRL WHO WOULD ADOPT THEM WEEPS

Nice, France, April 23.—The mystery of the "orphans of the Titanic" perhaps is cleared up.

The "orphans of the Titanic" are two chubby-faced, curly-haired, laughing, French babies, who, from the high decks of the sinking Titanic, were tossed into the lap of Miss Margaret Hays, of New York, as she sat in the last of the lifeboats.

The children are boys, one four years old, the other two. They talk French. The older answers to the name of Louis, but has not been able to give his last name.

"Lump" on the left with Louis standing up.

They were just two nameless,